Table MCSP2: As you may know, Republican lawmakers in Georgia passed a state law in late March 2021 that makes numerous changes to how elections will be administered, including a new photo ID requirement for voting absentee by mail. Supporters say the changes are necessary to restore confidence in election results. Critics say the new law restricts voting access and disproportionately negatively impacts people of color. Based on what you know, do you support or oppose Georgia's new election law?

Table MCSP2: As you may know, Republican lawmakers in Georgia passed a state law in late March 2021 that makes numerous changes to how elections will be administered, including a new photo ID requirement for voting absentee by mail. Supporters say the changes are necessary to restore confidence in election results. Critics say the new law restricts voting access and disproportionately negatively impacts people of color. Based on what you know, do you support or oppose Georgia's new election law?
