Table POL13: As you may know, the Electoral Count Act of 1887 does not clarify whether or not the vice president's role in certifying U.S. presidential election results is ceremonial, or if they have the power to reject state-certified electoral votes. Do you think the Electoral Count Act should be changed to clarify that the vice president cannot reject state-certified electoral votes in U.S. presidential elections?

Table POL13: As you may know, the Electoral Count Act of 1887 does not clarify whether or not the vice president's role in certifying U.S. presidential election results is ceremonial, or if they have the power to reject state-certified electoral votes. Do you think the Electoral Count Act should be changed to clarify that the vice president cannot reject state-certified electoral votes in U.S. presidential elections?
